General information about data processing

1. Scope of processing of personal data

In principle, we only collect and use the personal data of our members and event participants insofar as this is necessary to provide a functional website and to fulfill the business relationship with the club. The collection and use of personal data of our members and event participants is usually only with the consent of the respective person. An exception applies to cases in which prior consent cannot be obtained for reasons of fact and the processing of the data is permitted by law.

2. Legal basis for the processing of personal data

Insofar as we obtain the consent of the data subject for processing of personal data, Art. 6 para. 1 lit. a DSGVO as legal basis. In the processing of personal data necessary for the performance of a contract to which the data subject is a party, Art. 6 para. 1 lit. b DSGVO as legal basis. This also applies to processing operations required to carry out pre-contractual actions. Insofar as the processing of personal data is required to fulfill a legal obligation (statutory provisions) which is governed by our association (e.g. federal registration laws), Art. 6 para. 1 lit. c DSGVO as legal basis. If processing is necessary to safeguard the legitimate interests of our club or a third party, and if the interests, fundamental rights and freedoms of the data subject do not, Art. 6 para. 1 lit. f DSGVO is legal basis for processing.

3. Data deletion and storage duration

The personal data of the data subject will be deleted or blocked as soon as the purpose of the storage is deleted. In addition, such storage may be provided for by the European or national legislator in EU regulations, laws or other regulations to which the controller is subject. A blocking or deletion of the data takes place even if a storage period prescribed by the mentioned standards expires, unless there is a need for further storage of the data for the fulfillment of the purpose.

Your Rights

If your personal data are processed, you are the person who concerns it in the meaning of the DSGVO and you have the following rights to the person responsible:

You have a right to information about the personal data stored about you, about the purpose of the processing, about possible transfers to other places and about the duration of the storage.

If data is inaccurate or no longer necessary for the purposes for which it was collected, you may request that the processing be corrected, deleted or restricted. As far as provided in the processing procedures, you can also view your data yourself and correct it if necessary.

Should your particular personal situation give rise to reasons against the processing of your personal data, you may object to this insofar as the processing is based on a legitimate interest. The controller will no longer process the personal data concerning you unless he can demonstrate compelling legitimate grounds for processing that outweigh your interests, rights and freedoms, or the processing is for the purpose of enforcing, exercising or defending legal claims.

You have the right to revoke your data protection declaration at any time. The revocation of consent does not affect the legality of the processing carried out on the basis of the consent until the revocation. The revocation must be in writing.

If you have questions about your rights, please contact:

WEWASC e.V. president: president@wewasc.com; or in proxy of the president contact the vice president vicepresident@wewasc.com

Right to complain to a supervisory authority

As the data subject, you have the right to lodge a complaint with a data protection supervisory authority, in particular in the Member State of its residence or the place of the alleged infringement, without prejudice to any other administrative or judicial remedy, if you consider that the processing of the personal data concerning you violates the data safety.

The regulator that files the complaint will notify you of the status and outcome of your complaint, including the possibility of a judicial remedy. The competent supervisory authority is: Bavarian State Office for Data Protection Supervision (BayLDA), Promenade 27, 91522 Ansbach. More information can be found on the website of the Federal Commissioner for Data Protection and Freedom of Information.
