Directions:

Wrohm is located between Heide and Rendsburg in Schleswig-Holstein, directly on the B203 road. The farm is located outside of Wrohm, very close to the Eider River, and can be easily found via the street name "Neuenfähre." The road branches off directly in a northern direction from the federal highway. Pay attention to the house numbers, which are already indicated on the road sign. There are 2 entrances, and we live at No. 25.

If you are coming from the south, drive on the A7 through Hamburg, then take the A23 towards Heide. Take the Albersdorf exit and continue straight through Albersdorf towards Wrohm (turn right once after Albersdorf). After reaching Wrohm, turn right onto the B203. After approximately 2 minutes, turn left onto "Neuenfähre" (Note: enter the second "Neuenfähre" road). You will see the red farm on the right side with the tall picket fence.
